PRAYER DIARY October 2017

1	Please pray for the families who receive harvest hampers today. Pray that this can be a rich blessing to their household. Pray for Julie and Sarah as they work with families who need support and love .
2	Today pray for your parents.
3	Pray for your teachers today, ask God to give them lots of patience and kindness. Thank God for all the hard work they do to teach you.
4	Pray for the world today. Have a look out of a window and spot different things that you want to thank God for and pray for.
5	Pray for more Sunday school leaders, we ask that God will provide.
6	Today let's pray for the Retireds group. We pray that God will connect with those who attend the group and bring them into our wider church family.
7	Lord, we pray for the junior leaders training which takes place at Rushden lakes today. Would you inspire and guide this generation to lead your church, Amen.
8	Please pray for Café church today. We ask for vision and a sense of family. May God bless the gathering and help His people share their faith.
9	Pray for the significance of the Bibles which we will be giving out to year 3s at both Denfield school and Whitefriars school this month. Pray that the Bible's can be cherished and looked at as a place of guidance and truth.
10	Pray for 'Fruit' youth group today. As young people gather for: fun, friends and sport, pray for a strong sense of God's Holy Spirit and abounding love.
11	Write out your friends names today, around each of their names write down some prayers for them. You could focus on their families, friends, school life, health or whatever you feel they need.
12	Take some rest today. Spend some time not playing with anything or being on your: tablet, phone or laptop. Instead lie down in your bed and enjoy the silence with God. Try not to think about anything or move around, just rest in God's presence.
13	Today pray for Whitefriars Primary School. Pray for Lucy Burman as she leads the school. Ask God to strengthen the connections between the church and school, thank God that we are able to use such a great facility.
14	Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful.—Colossians 3:15
15	Please pray for The Sunday Salon which takes place this afternoon. Pray that the pampering ministry can bless and serve the women in our community.
16	Bless someone today: send an encouraging text or give an unexpected gift.

17	Today we pray for Denfield School in the north part of our parish. Pray for the teachers as influence and shape the children they teach, and pray for the leadership team and governors as they guide and look after the school.
18	Sing a worship song today, really shout out the words and let God know you love and worship Him.
19	Pray for the 'Outlet' Lunch time club run by the churches, at Rushden Academy today. Pray that it may be a shelter to those who struggle at school. Ask that those leading can have confidence in sharing their faith.
20	Watch or read the news today and pray about the stories you see.
21	Ask the schools break up for half term today, let's pray over your week of rest. Pray that you can recharge and rest from all the school work.
22	Pray for the older teens discipleship group which meets tonight.
23	Thank you God for the opportunities we have at both Denfield and Whitefriars school to share your good news. We pray today for the assemblies that both Chris and Nicola will lead over this year.
24	Put up a note in your kitchen today saying 'pray', and each time you go to prepare food remember to pray for those who have very little.
25	Pray for your future today. Ask God to show you some of the plan He has for your life. Write down any things you are worried about and let God take away the stress. You can trust God with your future.
26	Pray for your family today.
27	Let's pray for the missional community today. Remember to thank God for the relationships that are being built and ask that the community can continue to grow in discipleship and worship.
28	Please pray for the Soul Survivor worship Gathering in Peterborough tonight. As hundreds of young people from across the diocese gather, ask that God's Holy Spirit would transform lives and bring people into His kingdom.
29	As the clocks go back an hour this evening, pray for this next season. Ask God to make it fruitful and vibrant.
30	Do a dance for God today, jump about a bit and remember that He is the one who gives you all your energy and life.
31	Praise Jesus that he is the light of the world and our salvation. Pray for light in a world of darkness today.
